

- Have you been involved with any of the detailed negotiations taking place now between CMS and the DOM? Do you have any inside knowledge as to what the waivers will look like when they are finalized?
- You have said earlier this year that there is no way that Mississippi will get their Medicaid waivers in time. Do you still believe that? If Mississippi does get them, what will your response be?
- Your organization calls itself a center on budget matters. If this reform is unsatisfactory to you, has your organization done any study that determines where Mississippi can find $50 million in its budget over the next 15 months to replace this reform?

- You have spoken at several forums around the state in recent months. Who paid for your travel expenses to come to Mississippi?
- Your organization is cited often by the Democratic National Committee and the John Kerry Campaign (websites). Is it really a non-partisan group?
- Since several legislators and members of the media in Mississippi have cited your organization's work, could you provide for this committee a list of your organization's donors so we can determine who funds your work?
- To give some background into the causes you have supported in the past, I have seen where you are listed as a researcher on an Urban Institute report that questions the need to enforce statutory rape laws. Do you really think enforcing statutory rape laws are unnecessary?
